

I am isolating with my sister each and every day I am driving my parents up the roof so this is what they say:

Liam stop we`re working and you should do the same

But really to be honest I think that is quite lame

I`ve also got two cats, who I cuddle every day And in return they bring me home a present for the day

But my favourite thing of all will be when this is over,
And then i`ll be as lucky as a lucky four-leafed clover
